

YEOJU TECHNICAL INSTITUTE IN TASHKENT QUALITY POLICY

- Be smart
- Be skilled
- Be professional

The mission of the institute is to train highly qualified specialists in the field of architecture, civil engineering, energy, social and human sciences, through the introduction of modern curricula and their accreditation, educational, scientific and practical study materials to effectively ensure the integration of education, science and industry into a single integrated educational system.

The goal of the institute is involve highly qualified technical staff, teachers and practitioners in the educational process, to provide regular professional development of the academic staff in leading foreign higher educational institutions and research centers, to encourage teaching staff to constantly work on themselves and to improve to meet modern requirements.

The actions and obligations of the institute to achieve the mission and the goal:

- Open and transparent student enrollment.
- Competitive selection of academic staff and other technical staff of the institute.
- Introduction of modern curricula that meet modern requirements of the job market, aimed at expanding practical skills along with strengthening theoretical knowledge of students and their constant monitoring to ensure the quality of education.
- Regular update of the institute facilities, creation and support of scientific and educational laboratories and technology parks to strengthen the role of scientific research in the educational process. Creation of all necessary conditions for the development of innovative ideas and technologies.
- Regular professional development of academic staff and other technical staff, motivation and stimulation of their work, creation of a favorable moral and psychological climate in the team which will contribute to the interest of everyone in achieving high results.
- Development of international cooperation to involve potential and main employers in the educational process for the joint analysis and development of curricula with the aim of their compliance with modern job market requirements.
- Participation in international educational conferences, seminars and projects aimed at improving the quality of the educational process, the introduction of exchange educational programs among academic staff and students with leading foreign higher educational institutions and research centers.
- Enter the national and international rating systems of higher educational institutions and the annual improvement of the institute's position.
- Create an Alumni Association for further mutual cooperation.

The Institute management is responsible for the implementation of this policy at all levels of management, its update, and improvement of the effectiveness of the quality management system in accordance with the requirements of ISO 9001: 2015.

Rector
29.11.2019

J.Kudaybergenov